" 'he Jewess,' by the German Troupe. Halevy's opera of The Jewess was represented in excellent style last evening at the Academy of Music by the German troups, and the audience made up in appreciation what it lacked in numbers. This opera is based upon a romantic but painful story, and it gives opportunities for some powerful dramatic and picturesque spectacular effects. The music, although deficient in melody, is admirably expressive of the theme and is throughout highly dramatic. The performance last night was exceedingly meritorious, and Madame Lichtmay, who appeared as "Rachel," sang and acted with much expression. The other parts were as a rule well represented.

The City Amusements. AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC Flotow's opera of Stradella will be given this afternoon. On Monday Will am Tell will be performed. AT THE WALNUT there will be a matinee to-day. This evening the drama of Shandy Maguire, the comedy of Connecticut Courtship, and the drama of Ireland As It Is will be represerted, with Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams in the leading characters.

AT THE CHESNUT The Marble Heart will be performed this afternoon, and A New Way to Pay Old Debts this evening.

AT THE ARGH Lotta will appear this after-noon and evening in The Little Detective. AT THE ASSEMBLY BUILDINGS the two-headed girl will be on exhibition this afternoon and evening.

AT THE MUSEUM, Ninth and Arch streets, dramatic performances will be given this after-

AT THE AMERICAN a family matines will be given to-day, and a variety entertainment this evening.

An Exhibition of paintings by Mr. Edward Moran will be opened on Monday next at Earles' Galleries, No. 816 Chesnut street. The entire proceeds of this exhibition will be given to the fund for the sufferers by the war in Europe.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

FROM EUROPE.

The Affairs of Ireland. LONDON, March 2 .- In the House of Commons at a late hour last night, and after lengthy discussion, the Ministerial motion for a select cemmittee to inquire into the affairs of Ireland was earried by 81 majority.

The Evacuation of Paris Demanded. Paris, March 2 .- Favre has gone to Versailles to demand the immediate evacuation of Paris, by virtue of the terms of the coaventions. German Employees at Havre.

LNNDON, March 2 .- A league is being formed at Havre to prevent the return to France of German employees.

The Germans to Leave Paris at Once. LONDON, March 3 .- The French authorities are endeavoring to make such arrangements with the Prussians as will hasten the evacuation of Paris. It is believed the Germans will leave this evening, or, at the latest, to-morrow morning, in consequence of the great excitement in Paris.

Rioting in the City. A crowd of Parislans, observing some Prussians in the Courts of the Louvre and Place du Carrousel yesterday, attempted to use force for their expulsion, but were kept back by a line of troops, and pieces of cloth were hung over the gate to hide the Prussians.

Conflicts are Expected if the Germans do not soon evacuate the city.

Ratifications of Peace Exchanged. BORDEAUX, March 3 .- Despatches from Paris of the evening of March 2 say that ratifications of the treaty of peace were exchanged to-day and Favre has returned from Versailles. Paris is tranquil. The Prussians will evacuate the city to-morrow.

FROM NEW YORK.

Heavy Contested Will Case. New York, March 3.—Toe will of Bryan McCahill, involving the disposition of property valued at $700,000, and contested by his widow on the ground of fraud, was before Surrogate Hutchings this morning.

Van Eeten Sentenced, Louis Van Eeten, the celebrated forger, was sentenced to nine years in the State Prison this morning. Charles Brockway, another forger, had his sentence temporarily suspended.

FRANCE.

Ratification of the Treaty. LONDON, March 3 .- A special despatch to the Daily Telegraph, from Versailles, gives the text of the preliminary articles of peace signed by Thiers and Favre, on the part of France, and Bismarck, Bray, Wachter, and Jolly, on the part of Germany. They provide as follows:-The line of demarcation between France and Germany, as at first proposed, is retained, with one exception. It commences in the northwestern frontiers, at the Canton of Cattenom, in the Department of the Moselle, runs thence to Thionville, Briey, and Garze, skirts the southwestern and southern boundaries of the arrondissement of Metz; then proceeds in a direct line to the Chateau Salins and at Pelton Court, in the arrondissement of Thino, and follows the crest of mountains between the valleys of the rivers Seille and Regonze, in the Department of Muerthe, to the Canton of Schurmeck, in the northwestern corner of the Department of the Vosges; thence it runs to Saales, dividing that commune, and after that coincides with the western frontiers of the Upper and Lower Rhine Departments, until it reaches the Canton of Belfort; thence it passes diagonally to the Canton of Delle, and terminates by reaching the Swiss frontier. The alteration made at the last moment in the boundaries gives Belfort to France and cedes additional territory around Metz to the Germans. Germany is to possess her acquisitions from France in perpetuity. It is agreed that as soon as the preliminaries are ratified the Germans shall evacuate the Departments of Calvados, Orne, Sarthe, Eure et Cher, Indre et Loire, and Yonne, and all the territory on the left bank of the Seine. The French troops will retire behind the river Loire until peace is finally declared, except from Paris and other strongholds. The Germans after the payment of two milliards will occupy only the depart-ments of the Marne, Ardennes, Haut Marne, Meuz, Vosges, Meurthe, and the fortress of Belfort. Germany will be open to accept suitable financial payment instead of terri-torial guarantees for the payment of the war

Despatch from the Emperor. Berlin, March 3.—The Empress has received the following:—Versailles, March 3.—
I have just ratified the conditions of peace which the Bordeaux Assembly have accepted. Thus far the work is complete which was through seven months of battles to be achieved. Thanks to the valor and endurance of our incomparable army, and the sacrifices of the whole Fatherland. The Lord of Hosts has everywhere visibly blessed our enterprises, and by His mercy has permitted an honorable peace. To Him be the glory; to the Fatherland thanks. Wilhelm."

The above was publicly read amid the booming of artiflery, the ringing of bells, and the cheers of a people wild with joy.

MHWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs. -The colored soldiers, at a meeting last night, passed a resolution asking the citizens of Philadelphia to participate in the fifteenth amendmen! celebration.

-As each share of stock of the Mercantile Library is valued at $35, the directors have resolved to allow a duplication of each share taken out before the coming 1st of July. -The banks have subscribed to the bonds of the American Steamship Company, $298,-000; coal companies, $58,000; insurance companies, $200,000; and additional subscriptions of private individuals will increase the amount some $86,000.

Domestic Affairs. -The Legislature of Louisiana adjourned sine die on Thursday night. -The new Apportionment bill presented in the State Senate yesterday provides that until the next septennial enumeration there shall be thirty-three Senators and one hundred Representatives. Philadelphia is divided into four Senatorial and nineteen Representa-

-Yesterday was virtually the last day for the present Congress to close up its unfinished business. Most of its time was spent upon the matter of appropriations. The Senate agreed to the appropriation for League Island Navy Yard, giving the New London scheme the go-by.

—In the U. S. Senate yesterday, after the close of our report, conference reports on the Deficiency, River and Harbor, and Naval Appropriation bills were agreed to. Conference eports on the Army and Legislative Appropriation bills were adopted. The "Omnibus" Appropriation bill was under consideration.

In the House, the Senate amendments to the bill relating to telegraphic communication with foreign countries were agreed to. The Senate bills amendatory of the Patent laws, and providing for the redemption of copper and other token coins, were passed. The conference report on the Fortification Appropriation bill was agreed to. Mr. Cox-Mr. Ferry being in the chair-offered a resolution of thanks for the able and courteous manner in which Speaker Blaine had discharged the duties of his position. After a graceful speech by Mr. Cox, his resolution was adopted by acclamation, Mr. Mungen only being heard to vote "no." resolution was passed paying Thomas B. Baird, of Georgia, $2500 for contesting a seat to which he was entitled. The House then took a recess until 8 P. M. In evening session, conference reports on the Post Office, Army, River and Harbor, Deficiency, Naval and Legislative Appropriation bills were adopted. At midnight, all the appropriation ills except the "Omnibus bill" had been disposed of on conference reports.

Foreign Affairs. -The new Cabinet of Portugal has been completed.

-The Belgian army is being placed on peace footing. -The proffer of Eugland's mediation has been accepted in the dispute between Egypt -A telegram to the London Times from Versailles says that the Germans were to evacuate Paris yesterday. -The French Government has ordered the immediate return of the Mobilized National Guards to their homes. -Some of the German soldiers quartered in the French capital have endeavored to show a friendly disposition towards the citizens.

but have invariably met with rude treatment. ART EXHIBITION.
